

ELIZABETH WAGNER CARTER, M.D.

Education:

John Peter Smith Hospital
Family Practice Residency Program
Fort Worth, TX July 1981 – June 1984

Special elective:           Complicated Obstetrics
  Jefferson Davis Hospital
  Houston, TX February, 1984

Doctor of Medicine
University of Texas Medical Branch
Galveston, TX August 1977 – May 1981

Alpha Omega Alpha Honor Society

Special elective:           Tropical Medicine
  Tenwek Hospital
  Kenya, East Africa August 1980 – October 1980

Bachelor of Arts, Social Work
North Texas State University, Summa Cum Laude
Denton, TX December 1974

Work History – Medical Experience:

Family Practice -

John Peter Smith Hospital – Associate Professor, Family Practice Residency Program. Family Practice coverage of various inpatient and outpatient services as well as an employee clinic in this county hospital. Director of Geriatric and Quality Improvement Program. Medical Director for Quality for Tarrant County Hospital District. Co-director for Geriatric Fellowship. Private practice includes acupuncture.
Fort Worth, TX August 1989 – present

Fairfax Family Practice – Physician in large Family Practice in Northern Virginia, including obstetrics.
Vienna, VA July 1987 – June 1989

Neighborhood Health Horizons – Medical Director of a Family Practice clinic with active obstetric practice in medically under served area. Clinic funded by several large foundations.
Fort Worth, TX July 1984 – January 1985

Occupational Health –

PHS Health Unit – Department of Health and Human Services, part-time contract physician for health surveillance programs, educational programs and associated administrative tasks for Federal employees.
Fort Worth, TX July 1984 – May 1987

Emergency Medicine -

Harris Methodist HEB Emergency Room – Single coverage of emergency room averaging 1,600 visits per month.
Bedford, TX May 1985 – May 1987

Quality Improvement –

Coordinator/Director of Quality Improvement Program for Department of Family Practice and Family Practice Residency Program at John Peter Smith Hospital
Fort Worth, TX 1989 – Present

Medical Director for Quality for Tarrant County Hospital District
Fort Worth, TX March 2002 – Present

Utilization Review –

Chairman of Utilization Review Committee, John Peter Smith Hospital for two and one-half years

Currently Chairman of Quality Improvement/Utilization Review Committee

Sexual Assault Program –

Director of county hospital program to provide services to sexual assault victims
1991 – 1994

Community Service:

Medical Advisory Committee, Planned Parenthood of North Texas, 1984 – 1985; 1990 – 1994
Medical Protocol Advisory Committee for the Children’s Advocacy Network
National Kidney Foundation, Board Member of Fort Worth Chapter, 1986 – 1987

Academic Experience:

Associate Clinical Professor – John Peter Smith Hospital. Provide supervision to Family Practice residents in large (72 resident) Family Practice Residency Program.
Fort Worth, TX 1989 – Present

Assistant Clinical Professor – Medical College of Virginia. Taught Family Practice residents on part-time basis for Fairfax Family Practice Program.
Fairfax, VA July 1987 – June 1989

Professional Associations:

American Academy of Family Physicians

American Academy of Medical Acupuncture

Board Certification:

American Board of Family Practice, certified July 1984

Recertification: 1998

American Board of Quality Assurance and Utilization Review Physicians, 1991

Certificate of Added Qualification in Geriatrics, 1992

Proficiency exam in Medical Acupuncture, 2000